How to Search For a Home

Key Points

Look for a home that you can see yourself living in for several years

Look for a home that allows you to grow and can adapt to your needs as life changes

Consider a place with rooms that have multiple functions

Homes aren't one size fits all. Find a home that fits you best

Check the neighborhood and surrounding areas before you purchase

Buy what you can afford

Consider both old and new homes

Home location matters

Think about resale value in the future
