

How I Help You

Buy Your Home

Windermere
REAL ESTATE

Helping you find and purchase a home is only one facet of my job.

In addition, I will:

- Explain real estate principles, contracts and documents
- Refer you to a reputable lender that can help you assess your financial situation and pre-approve you for a loan
- Help you determine the types of homes and neighborhoods that most fit your needs
- Arrange tours of homes that meet your criteria
- Provide you with detailed information about homes you're interested in
- Determine the market value of homes you're interested in
- Assist you in writing and negotiating a mutually-accepted purchase and sale agreement
- Accompany you to the inspection
- Coordinate necessary steps after inspection
- Work with the escrow company to ensure all needed documents are in order and completed in a timely manner

So by working with me, you will:

- Be more likely to find the home that meets all your criteria
- Decrease the amount of time it takes to find your home
- Understand all the terms, processes and documents involved
- Have current market information to make informed decisions
- Have a skilled negotiator on your side
- Have peace of mind that all the details are being handled
